U.S. Army PM J-AIT Nominees Receive 2011 SOLE Awards

Alexandria, Va., December 21, 2011 – The U.S. Army Product Manager for Joint - Automatic Identification Technology (PM J-AIT), a member of the Project Manager, Defense Communications and Army Transmissions Systems Team (DCATS), an office within the Program Executive Office, Enterprise Information Systems (PEO EIS) located at Fort Belvoir, Va., is pleased to announce that two PM J-AIT members were acclaimed by the Executive Board of Directors of the Society of Logistics (SOLE) in recognition of outstanding services and individual contributions to the program in their specialty areas in the broad fields of logistics.

Mr. Mike Morrissey and Mr. Jerry Rodgers were honored at the annual SOLE awards program at Fort Myer, Va. They were recognized for accomplishments in the respective logistics award categories of reliability and technical publications.

Lt. Col. Cary Ferguson, Product Manager, J-AIT, stated, “Jerry and Mike have a right to be proud of their accomplishments. Each has won local SOLE recognition in years past; however, this is their first time being honored on the national level. I enjoyed witnessing the presentation and seeing how much this means to them.”

PM J-AIT is the DoD AIT and Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) leader providing global asset tracking, web-based RF-ITV services, and complete program life cycle support.
